

Eye Bank Lab Technician Job Posting

Job Description

Miracles In Sight office in Winston-Salem, NC seeks a full time, experienced Eye Bank Technician to help facilitate high volume donation program.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Works in a lab environment handling human tissue for ocular transplants
- Processes donor blood specimens for testing
- Evaluates corneas by slit lamp and specular microscopy, and interprets findings
- Processes ocular tissue for DSAEK, DMEK, and sclera preservation
- Distributes ocular tissue for transplantation and responsible for all associated logistics
- Makes donor eligibility determinations based on FDA and EBAA standards
- Strictly adheres to all MIS SOPs pertaining to lab environment

Requirements

- Minimum of 1 year in an Eye and/or Tissue banking laboratory environment
- Bachelors Degree in Science or Biology is preferred
- Appropriate experience as ophthalmic tech or lab tech may be substituted for education.
- Thorough knowledge of ocular anatomy and physiology as well as medical knowledge
- Ability to meet multiple time-sensitive objectives and deadlines
- Must be available for weekend rotations
- Appropriate dexterity to use surgical instruments
- Ability to cope with issues pertaining to death is essential
- Demonstrate exceptional customer service
- Ability to interact positively with co-workers within and outside of the department
- Possess basic computer skills
- Must read and write English

Benefits

- Medical, Dental, Vision, HSA, Retirement, Life, AD&D
- Opportunity for advancement
- Excellent Training
- Rewarding work

Interested applicants may send their resume to kgrijalva@miraclesinsight.org. For more information, visit our Careers page: <https://www.miraclesinsight.org/contact-us/careers/>.